

Rules

1. General Guidelines:

- This is a team-based/individual event. The format (single-player or multiplayer) will be decided based on the selected game(s).
- Participants must register in advance and be present at the designated time. Late entries will not be allowed.
- Players must use only the provided gaming setups (or bring their own peripherals if allowed).

2. Equipment & Setup:

- Participants should not tamper with any hardware or software settings unless permitted.
- No external software, hacks, or mods are allowed.
- Personal gaming gear (mouse, keyboard, controller, headset) may be allowed only after prior approval from event organizers.

3. Game Format & Rules:

- The event will follow a knockout/league format, depending on the number of participants.
- Specific game rules will be announced before the event.
- If a player/team fails to join the game lobby within 5 minutes, they will be disqualified.
- Time limit: Each match will have a predefined duration. Exceeding it may result in penalties.

4. Fair Play & Conduct:

- No cheating, ghosting, or exploiting game mechanics—violators will be immediately disqualified.
- Any offensive language, trolling, or unsportsmanlike behavior will result in negative marking or disqualification.
- Participants must follow referee/judge decisions—their verdict is final and binding.

5. Technical Issues:

- In case of technical failures (PC crash, network lag, etc.), decisions will be made by the event coordinators.
- If the issue occurs within the first 2 minutes of the game, the match may be restarted. Otherwise, play continues.

6. Judging & Results:

- Winners will be determined based on match scores, eliminations, or objectives completed, as per the selected game.
- The decision of the judges and organizers will be final and binding.
- Any disputes must be reported immediately to the event head coordinator.

7. Additional Notes:

- Participants must arrive 30 minutes before their scheduled match.
- The organizing team is not responsible for any damaged personal equipment.
- Violation of any rules will result in immediate disqualification and possible ban from future events.
